PRE-GIFT. Normally, you wouldn't use a present before giving it away. However, by filling in a friend's page before giving a Friendship Book, you make it even more special. When given as a family gift, you can have multiple family members fill in pages before presenting it. Think of the fun that will be had reading what the adults want to be when they grow up or learning their least favorite school subject.

HOMESCHOOL KEEPSAKE. Are you a parent who homeschools her/his children? Friendship Books are the perfect way for your children to stay in touch with their friends and preserve precious childhood memories.

GUESSING GAME. Cut as many little pieces of paper as you have friends. Choose your favorite question from the book and write it on each piece of paper. Provide each friend a question, then have each friend write down their secret answer. Later, you can draw the answers and guess who wrote it. Have fun guessing who is who.

SECRET GROUP GAME. Divide your friends into three or more groups. Each group secretly picks one person to fill in the friends' pages. You act as the moderator and read the answers out loud to the other groups. The group guessing the correct person wins. In the next round, each group picks another person and the guessing starts again. It's fun to see how much you really know about each other.

CLASS REUNION. 10, 15 or 20 years from now, bring your treasured Friendship Book to your class reunion. Enjoy sharing your memories.
